CANDIDATES FIX STATE PLATFORM

Republican State Committee Also Elected in Convention in Burlington

REPEAL OF PERRY BILL IS PROMISED

Extension of Workmen's Compensation Act Favored — Pollard, Kinsley, Dunnett and Southwick Are Chosen the Presidential Electors.

BURLINGTON, Sept. 29.—Vermont Republicans, consisting of the party nominees for town, county and state offices, met here yesterday in the first platform convention under the new primary law. The gathering was not large, but comfortably filled the main floor of the Strong theater. The convention adopted a brief, pointed and expressive state platform, elected a new state committee, listened to excellent addresses by its chairman, Dr. D. C. Hawley of Burlington, and George W. Wickert, Taft's attorney general, and nominated the following presidential electors:

J. A. Pollard, Chester; Earle S. Kinsley, Rutland; Alexander Dunnett, St. Johnsbury; John L. Southwick, Burlington.

The spirit of united Republicanism animated the convention from the call of the chairman's gavel until the final adjournment. The proceedings were harmonious, former Progressive leaders were duly recognized, the names of Hughes, Taft and Roosevelt were strongly applauded, and there was a decided demonstration for popular Vermonters, including Congressman Frank L. Greene, Roger W. Hubbard, Gov. Charles W. Gates, Chairman Stanley C. Wilson, Horace F. Graham and others.

The following are the members of the Republican state committee by counties: Addison, M. F. Barnes, Chimney Point; Bennington, E. E. Potter, Pownal; Caledonia, J. Rolfe Seales, St. Johnsbury; Chittenden, R. L. Sherman, Burlington; Essex, Harry B. Amey, Island Pond; Franklin, Horace Fairchild, Fairfield; Grand Isle, Robinson, South Hero; Lamoille, Smith B. Waite, Hyde Park; Orange, Stanley B. Wilson, Chelsea; Orleans, C. S. Skinner, Orleans; Rutland, B. L. Stafford, Rutland; Washington, J. Morris Dewey, Montpelier; Windham, J. E. Biddock, Saxtons River; Windsor, Alfred E. Watson, White River Junction.

The platform adopted was as follows: Believing that the voters of any body politic are entitled to know the principles upon which a party seeks their suffrage, we, the Republicans of Vermont, by our representatives in state convention assembled do hereby declare the principles for which we stand.

We again renew our allegiance to that party which from its organization has stood for the protection of American citizens and American rights at home and abroad, and pledge our earnest support to the platform recently adopted by that party in national convention assembled.

We recall with pride the position taken by Vermont in that convention which had so large a part in bringing about the nomination of our peerless leader, Charles Evans Hughes.

Appreciating, as never before, the virtue and power of a united party, we commend the patriotism of strong, courageous and devoted leaders who have enrolled themselves once more under our banner, and we urge all Republicans to supreme and victorious effort under the leadership of our noble leader, Charles Evans Hughes.

We recognize the fact that agriculture is the predominant industry of our commonwealth and the chief source of our material prosperity. We believe that nowhere in the United States are there greater agricultural opportunities than in Vermont and that our citizens should be encouraged to remain upon the farms of our state and that all measures looking to the upbuilding of agriculture, both in method and practical results, should commend themselves to the favorable consideration of the general assembly and that the teaching of practical agriculture should be prosecuted with vigor and efficiency.

Good roads are essential and necessary for the highest development of our state in all its phases, and the proper expenditure of our money for better highways means new and higher attainments in all walks of life, and the extension of highway improvements to rural communities will enhance the value of our hill farms and add pleasure and profit to a large rural population. We believe in the continuance of the present highway policy with such improvements as will be commensurate with our changing conditions and the best methods of road construction, and recommend the expenditure of a reasonable part of the highway money on the so-called back roads under state supervision.

It is imperative that the citizens of our state receive the best possible educational advantages and that equal opportunities for the securing of an education be given to all. Believing in this principle and that wherever practicable the rural school should be restored, we favor the continuance and extension of our present educational system so that the same may be brought to the highest possible point of efficiency.

We call attention to the marked industrial progress already achieved by Vermont under successive Republican administrations, and we declare for the conservation of our forests and water powers, and for the continuance of the campaign of publicity that has been so effectively carried on.

We favor the immediate repeal of the so-called Perry act.

We believe that the present primary law should be given a fair trial with such amendments thereto as the experience of the last primary election seems to warrant.

We favor the enlargement and extension of our workmen's compensation act.

We believe in the consolidation rather than in the creation of commissions and that the conduct of the public business should be thoroughly efficient and as economical as will be in keeping with the dignity of the state, and that the state should engage in no new endeavors until it has adequately provided for those which it has already undertaken.

Having indorsed the platform promulgated by the Republican national convention, we do not deem it necessary or wise to repeat herein the principles therein set forth. We believe that a promise made
